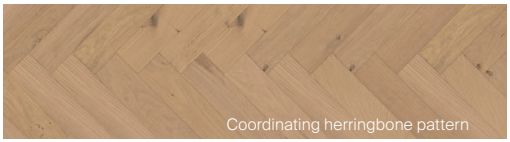
NATURA

GUILD | BOTTEVA COLLECTION



Botteva is rooted in the quiet rhythm of hand and tool. Drawn from the instruments of the trade, each one is a tribute to the spaces where beauty is shaped, not manufactured. These are floors with soul: surfaces weathered by design, grain patterns that speak in movement, and textures that feel worn, not polished. Crafted in character grade, every plank bears the imprint of its making, knots, marks, and variation left intentionally visible, like the signature of the artisan. Bold, grounded, and deeply tactile, Botteva is a collection for those who see the poetry in process and the elegance in imperfection.

Earthbound and effortless, Natura reflects the wood in its most honest state; uncoated, warm, and familiar. The grain is visible and imperfect, with subtle tonal shifts that feel both accidental and artful. It speaks to the quiet in-between moments of craft, where instinct guides the hand more than precision.
